Citizenship of British Occupation Company Director Asmont Beau got its name Beau: The name stems from a little love story between Josie and Ransen: Two of them were known only for another couple of weeks When Ransen asked Josie to travel to Colorado for Josie was also an Americana country artist fan, so she met and two of them climbed to the foothills of Colorado at the Mishawaka Amphitheater. During the concert Hayes Carl played a slow song called Beaumont and it was the first dance the couple shared. A song titled Beaumont would not only be their first dance as a new couple, but their first dance with husband and wife on their wedding day. In an attempt to decide his new place in the title, Beaumont came on the list. They learned the word Beaumont actually meant a great mountain and with a barn sitting on a hill seat along with the importance of the song, it was undoubtedly the perfect name for a new wedding venue. Ransen and Josie are very excited to offer a wonderful space for people to host their events! The couple began to talk about the idea after they had a limited selection of local venues to hold their wedding reception. At the same time, they decided to turn their speech into action. Ransen is full Wayne American. He's a big fan of Wayne Wayne Sport is the same as a former Blue Devil athlete. Ransen has been a builder for heritage house Wayne for more than 10 years, but his true passion is outdoors, hunting and fishing. Along with his love of the outdoors, Ransen is a true music enthusiast with both family and friendly ties with local bands such as The Leafy Spurge Band and Cactus Flats. He hopes to add his love of sports, outdoors, and music to good things to come to Beaumont.Josie has lived in Wayne since meeting Ransen in 2012. She is originally from the Hubbard, Nebraska area and grew up around farming, trucks and flowers. The wedding and event business has always been part of her daily life, and her mother was in the decorating and flower industry. It just seemed natural to continue that path and pursue your passion for event planning and having its place. 701 Main Street Beaumont, Texas 77701 Discover the facility where your event is our priority number one.
